

Laws of Nature and Race

-High Priest Hooded Cobra 666

Spiritual Satanism is about being honest with ourselves, and this is related to the name of Satan in Sumeria which is Satya. Which means Truth.

Aside of that in the matter of Races, we have to be honest. Everyone else in the planet is lying, which is what they usually like to do. We do not have this need because we aren't emotionally and mentally ill as they are, we don't need to create comfortable lies. Even our imagination is based on more glorious things and we'd rather use it for better ways.

In the world, and in biological reality, in the very fabric of reality, there are divisions in humanity and species of humans same as any other living beings on the planet. Humans, too, fall into the category of the living species, and everything that has life, has some particular rules. One of these rules is what TYPE of life people are. The fact we accept the reality of other races existing, is not a result or need to hate, it is biological reality, it is as if we admit the sun exists. One has to admit the sun exists in order to move into space travel, for example.

Spiritually and intellectually the Satanist seeks excellence and to understand the world in the deepest level, by Wisdom (emotional understanding), knowledge (logical knowledge) and a fusion of both these.

In races we see differences, superiorities, baselines of where a race exists, great individuals, bad habits that bleed over a populace, gifts that are common in a people and many other things. This is spiritual and this deals with karma, and not only how people evolved, but how people decided to make themselves.

The above we understand by accepting what individualism is which is one of the understanding fundamentals in Satanism. We understand that the individual, which is the reason of meditation, can decide about their deeper destiny and advance, no matter where they are, as this is a rule of life we apply.

Anyone who applies the laws of life over their comfortable lies and sentimental crap, grows. Everyone who doesn't, will die. People die everyday because they neglect these laws. People are depressed because of such neglect. Humanity somehow has it all wrong, that they are 'above' these laws. Only partially we are above these laws, and only insofar we obey them. Disobedience means slavery and death.

Satanism understands the RULE and the EXCEPTION to the rule. The people who seek to advance are an exception by default, but nobody is excluded from nature's laws. We just treat each other differently because we're on a higher level, that the mob outside has deprived itself from being, because it listens to the jews.

Spiritual Satanism doesn't accept jews not because we are hateful and bigots, but based on the fact that jews have desecrated Satanism and many other things in the past, and dragged values that were more important into the mud. This has went for thousands of years. If the jews in Israel have a right as a religious foundation to not accept the "Goyim" or the non jews, we exercise the same right and we do not accept them.

It is that simple.

The jews however have a bad habit, they always get into other people's business. This is a racially motivated tendency. They want to get into the business of other people simply because they are in cutthroat competition with them, and they want to control them and damage them, which is typical and normal of a foreign lifeform. The jews know from the age of infancy they are at war with all of you, it is their culture. It's you that have zero knowledge and you don't understand shit.

Because the Joy of Satan changed this, we have come at the bullseye to the jewish powers that be. The jews merely want a world of their own, they are not supremacist, this is far worse. They don't want a continent or a land, they want to own all the people's of earth as cattle. And their actions prove this on their own, nobody no more believes this is superstition.

Now infrequently there are tears from people who complain about supremacist. All lifeforms seek to be 'superior' in the area in where they live. The problems begin when these lifeforms come abruptly and strangely into each other's environment with aggressive desires and compete over the same resources.

There are giant continents and we know the jews are behind moving people forcefully and through war into other lands that don't belong to their own. And for better or for worse, this has shaped 'history' more or less. Because guess what, people have to live. For jews to live peacefully, there must be multiculturalism and heated instincts all over the place, and Gentiles murdering Gentiles.

The second aspect is that they want retarded people, because who is a slaver that wants a CLEVER slave? The clever Goyim will only overthrow the jews because they suck and they are vampires and evil ghouls. Jews have a place to go and it is called Israel, and this is their ethno-state and country where they belong, but they insist on doing business within the countries of other people instead, which is what they always did.

So part of their race mixing and 'love everything' agenda is to create the necessary animals that will be easily ruled. Spiritual Satanists don't have this and this is why they have revolted against the jewish system, and of course, the enemy doesn't approve this. What's new? The news is that now the Gentiles are actually able to wake up into this reality that has been going for thousands of years.

Races start hating one another when there are large differences. Imagine if aliens came from outer space and they were so beautiful you couldn't even get a mate or something, or if they were so giant in size they stepped on humans like ants. In other words, unequal things brought into very close proximity clash, and will clash violently.

One last thing on the above. Even in the bible there are instances that state that the sins of the parents (this is advice to jews) in basically 'mixing with the pagans', brings pestilence and curses that will appear in the 'generations to come'. The jews don't approve these people in their own midst and send them out for infiltration purposes. They don't give a crap, they banish them.

The same thing is true with incessant race mixing. Clean races are vital and when you break or mix this vitality, the product can be just fine for a few generations.

But five or six or ten generations down the line, you break down a blueprint that nature has ordained to be strong and survive, and you fragment it completely only hitting blindly about luck. And luck breeds a lot of retarded people and if people fail to understand her, nature punishes very bad, as much good as it can bless if people listen.

The Spiritual Satanists must be wise, prosperous, and healthy, and this is our goal to help with. Therefore we cannot give people negative advice to make people feel 'well' based on the subconscious programming that was done with the powers that run this world (such as multiculturalism, social marxism etc), as these powers are evil and not interested one inch for the people below, the 'animals'. The enemy knows all of this crap they made is entirely false. We know it too.

The problem rises because we share this advice with you too and because this makes you powerful, and powerful people or happy people that have resolved their issues can become a danger to the weak slaver authority of the top. The authorities of the world instead of rejoicing on powerful people, they smite them and make them ill, again, proving their alien nature and occupation of the planet that we call 'our world'.

The jews don't follow social marxism, multiculturalism. They follow Judaism. We the awakened Gentiles don't follow social marxism, multiculturalism, and jewish philosophy. We follow Spiritual Satanism.

All of the above is "Hate Speech"- ie, facts. Facts and truth are hate speech, as much as Satan is the God of Hate and the God of the "Hateful", the Prince of Darkness, and the source of all "Evil": That which dares to oppose the wet dreams of a particular clique that wishes to make the world a cattle farm.

Spiritual Satanism is where the Gentile Soul finds it's freedom and salvation, through our Pagan Gods and Satan, Satya.
